

Chairman's Chat This month's chat is by our Vice Chairman, Margaret Brackenbury, who stood in for Julie Higgins as Chairman at NFWI's Annual Meeting in Liverpool. Over to Margaret...

We left Bury at 8.30am on Friday 10 June, having already picked up members in Sudbury, and made our way to the Cambridge services for a coffee stop (we can't go far without a coffee stop). Our journey then took us up on to the M6 where we made another stop for lunch, which had a lovely lake with wild fowl and a chance to stretch our legs. We arrived in Liverpool at about 3pm to have a look round - some members headed for the Cavern, others enjoyed an

June Bryant and Helen Lindfield cosy up to the Beatles

Saturday, the main event, off to Liverpool. It was a bit blowy on the riverside but we soon found our seats in the M&S arena. I am not going to do a ice cream by the docks and we even found the Beatles statues! Back on the coach, we headed to the Premier Inn in Widnes. Once checked in, we had a couple of hours to relax before dinner.

report on the meeting as your WI Delegate will give you all the details, but I must mention the main speaker, Sarah Clarke, currently Black Rod. She has had a fascinating career in Sports Management, including working at the All England Tennis Club as the first female Championship Director. A very inspirational lady!

Following the meeting we returned to our hotel for dinner followed by tenpin bowling. Great fun was had by all, even the cheer leaders!

Bowlers joined by Tim, our coach driver

Sunday we said goodbye to Widnes to start our journey home with a surprise stop in Coventry to get lunch and have a look around. I think most of us headed for Coventry Cathedral, which was heavily bombed in 1940 and a new Cathedral built in 1960, very different from what I expected and I was very impressed by the way the old and the new mixed. The last leg saw us arriving in Bury ahead of schedule before the last drop in Sudbury. Finally ladies, the 2023 NFWI Annual Meeting will be held in Cardiff, date to be confirmed. It really was a great weekend full of fun, friendship and inspiration!

Hello from the WI Office Our feet are firmly back in Suffolk after a fantastic trip to Liverpool earlier this month. It was an absolute pleasure to travel with 35 of our wonderful Suffolk West women and we certainly squeezed plenty into our three day trip, as Margaret revealed in her Chairman's Chat. If we've tickled your fancy, then look out for more information about our 2023 trip to Cardiff later on in the year!

This month, don't forget to snap up your tickets for Shakespeare in the Park to enjoy The Comedy of Errors under the (hopefully) blue skies of Park Farm, our WI HQ. It's only a few weeks away on Saturday 9 July and is open to everyone of all ages, so book now whilst it's fresh in your mind. You are welcome to bring food and drink onto the site, and you will need to bring your own chairs as seating is not provided.

We've also got a day out to RHS Hyde Hall in September, and our Lavenham Lunch makes a welcome return with TV star Dr Jonathan Foyle.

We had a small misprint last month, for those eager to join in with the Girls Night Out, it is Saturday 10 September not Friday as previously advertised. Find out more about all our events on pg.4-6.

You might not know this, but you can get another dose of Federation news with our monthly feature in the Bury Free Press. Our column is published the first Friday of the month in the community pages.

On that note, keep sending in your WI news to office.swfwi@gmail.com and don't forget to send in your photos too because we love to see you in action! The deadline for the next issue is Wednesday 20 July.

♡ Rachel Hows and Rachel Sparks, Office Team

Promotion & Media Team

Back in November 2021 we launched our PR Team. They've recently had the thumbs up from the Federation and are now the official Promotion and Media Team who will be raising the WI's profile in the media and at public events across West Suffolk. The team includes:

Helen Lindfield
Chairman

Gwen Williams
Vice Chairman

Maggie Glavin

Janet Brown

Rachel Hows

Anne Ling

Alison Shawcross

Shirley Rogers

Tina Walker

They're already off to a flying start after attracting the attention of potential new members at the South Suffolk Show. Armed with enthusiasm and Maggie's wealth of WI knowledge, the team suggest WIs based on the interests, location and needs of each woman, and once back in the office Rachel Hows puts them in touch with the suggested WIs Secretaries.

If you'd like to get involved with our enthusiastic team contact Rachel via office.swfwi@gmail.com

2021/22 Resolution Results

Last weekend, at NFWI's 2022 Annual Meeting, the proposed resolution Women and Girls with ASD & ADHD - under identified, under-diagnosed, misdiagnosed, under-supported was passed by 96.5% votes.

There were 4738 votes in favour and 171 against, this means that we can now begin campaigning.

Rural Women in Action and ACWW news

Take a look at acww.org.uk – there's a new logo, a new strategy and important news on how this organisation is planning to move forward over the next four years.

The most important thing to know is that the money you raise for ACWW will continue to support rural women in these four ways:

- Community transformation and grass roots projects
- Sharing of knowledge and activities
- Advocacy
- Partnership

You can find out more on the SWFWI website here and if you'd like to hear more, I can visit your WI and give a short talk so all your members know about the organisation and how we, as SWFWI members, support it.

Faith & Feminism

Monday 11th July

It is with regret that the PA Committee has had to cancel the Faith and Feminism trip. We are very grateful to those members who had bought tickets and we are sorry to disappoint, but we have had to cancel as ticket sales hadn't reached the break even point to cover the cost of hiring a coach and other expenses. We simply cannot run the trip at a loss. We hope members will continue to support our future Federation events.

Watch this space!

Gwen Williams, PA Chairman

A number of WIs have been supporting My Wish Charity over the last couple of years by answering their calls for items to help patients in various wards. The Federation have already sent syringe driver bags, knitted hearts, twiddle muffs, wheat bags, lap blankets to name a few. Our most recent project has been draw string bags for the belongings of deceased patients to be returned to their relatives.

Drawstring Bags

If you'd like to get involved then the drawstring bags measure 30cm x 20cm and should be made in a firm fabric.

Lavenham Lunch with Dr Jonathan Foyle

Monday 19 September | Doors 10.30AM

Lavenham Village Hall | Members £25

Book via eventbrite here

Dr Jonathan Foyle is a former Curator at Hampton Court and is currently a broadcaster (Channel 5's Secrets of the Royal Palaces), and researcher, lecturer and writer.

He is author of seven books on cathedrals, great churches and castles, and has spent a decade researching medieval furniture, a journey of discovery sparked by the subject of today's talk.

In 2010 an antique bed appeared on an auction listing. Its ancient timber and arcane language led to a decade of research to uncover its identity. Those trials, tribulations and triumphs led their way to a Queen called Elizabeth. The bed, rich in medieval royal imagery, was made for Elizabeth of York and Henry VII in time for their marriage in January 1486. But what was uncovered to make the case?

Soak up his wisdom as he teaches us about Elizabeth, Queen of England: the Marriage Bed of Henry VII and Elizabeth of York.

Doors open at 10.30am for tea and coffee, followed by Dr Foyle's talk at 11.30am and book signing. Lunch (approx. 1pm) includes a glass of wine and two courses (either Chicken Chasseur and seasonal vegetables OR vegetarian option, and sticky toffee pudding OR individual pavlova) followed by tea/coffee.

LINKING TOGETHER WI MEMBERS ACROSS THE COUNTY

Obituary: Ruth Crabtree It is with great sadness we must announce the death of Mrs Ruth Crabtree. Ruth was Federation Treasurer from 1980-83 and a member of Polstead WI. Our thoughts are with her friends and family.

The Platinum Jubilee celebrations continue with Suffolk West WIs paying their own tributes to Queen Elizabeth II and her 70 year reign.

Great Barton WI As part of the Great Barton four day Jubilee Celebrations our WI volunteered to host the Coffee Morning whilst the Trooping of the Colour pageant was screened for all to watch in the Village Hall.

WI Members provided the floral decorations along with a wonderful display of cakes. The centrepiece Jubilee Cake was baked by WI Member Jenny Stone. The event was a huge success with around 150 people attending.

As with all WI events an army of supporters behind the scenes made it possible with baking, washing up, clearing away and serving. A real team effort!

Hundon WI The day dawned sunny, not a cloud in the sky. We were ready for the day ahead. So many cakes, biscuits, sausage rolls, quiches, gateaux, were there too many? Oh no, we had to eat our words! The generosity of all the people who baked goods for the café was amazing, thank you everyone. The queue was never ending, the tea and coffee flowed, Tricia and Sally were cutting up a storm, oh my gosh the chocolate sponge was tempting! Ailsa was in charge of all the savouries which were so good. We finished our shift and the queue was still to the door, the cavalry arrived as more people were needed to serve the never ending cake lovers, and to continually wash and dry. (Such a relief) It was a wonderful day, such a great atmosphere and an honour to celebrate the Queen's 70th Jubilee.

Everyone enjoys an outing and our trip to Lavenham in June was no exception. We visited Little Hall, one of the oldest buildings in the best preserved of the Suffolk wool towns; a 14th Century house built for the Causton family of clothiers and restored by the Gayer-Anderson brothers who filled the house with delightfully chosen art and artefacts collected during their extensive travels. We were impressed by the medieval crown-post roof and the Persian bridal box pictures and relaxed in the tranquil walled garden. There was time to explore the creative independent retailers of Lavenham before our cream teas at Tatums Tea Rooms.

Our next meeting will be a related presentation Tudor Fashion by Jacqueline Norman, (could she be Hundon's answer to BBC's Lucy Worsley) on Thursday 14 July 7.30pm at Hundon Village Hall. If this interests YOU, please call Jan McLardy 01440 786369.

Sudbury QH WI Members brought the buzz of the Platinum Jubilee weekend to the Hillside Care Home in Great Cornard when they delivered over 25 handmade blankets in red, white and blue!

Back in February we contacted Hannah Davies at the Hillside Care Home asking if our WI could help in any way. Hannah mentioned the need for blankets. Sudbury QH WI members whizzed into action and decided with the Jubilee celebrations imminent we could knit the blankets in red, white and blue. Hannah thought this was a brilliant idea, as did the residents, and the knitting began.

When we went to deliver the blankets the care home was decorated in red, white and blue which added to the theme of the brilliant handover afternoon attended by our President, Jean Peacock, and some of the members.

Sudbury QH with the Hillside residents

Some of the residents belong to a knitting group and we spent time sharing tips. It was a very special experience.

Pauline Hatch, WI Secretary

Moreton Hall WI Members were invited to wear red, white and blue to our June meeting in recognition of the Platinum Jubilee and we started

Secretary Annette and a special guest our meeting with a glass of 'bubbles' to toast HM The Queen and her remarkable life of service. The hall was decorated with union flags and bunting, and the festive theme was evident throughout the evening.

Our speaker was Helen Maxfield who is a Suffolk based print artist working primarily with lino cuts. Helen showed us how she creates limited edition prints taking her inspiration from the East Anglian countryside before we went on to 'have a go' ourselves. Some members designed their lino cuts whilst others used Helen's designs and by the end of the evening, we had created a variety of cards and bookmarks to take home.

It was a fabulous evening and a fitting start to the Jubilee bank holiday.

Boxford WI The ladies at Boxford WI all enjoyed a thoroughly entertaining and informative talk and recital by Hattie Bennett about life with her cello. From her first steps into the world of music in Manchester to her formation of Music in Felixstowe. The music and anecdotes of her life were most enjoyable.

I then had the privilege of seeing Hattie perform on stage with Christina Johnstone at the Jubilee Proms in the Park.

Leavenheath WI held a Cake Stall at Leavenheath Village Platinum Celebrations on their Village Green. We were very pleased to sell out, making almost £150 for the new playground fund. It was a very pleasant and fun day which helped raise the profile of the WI.

Then it was on to our outing. It was a glorious day to travel through the beautiful Suffolk countryside to Bressingham steam museum and gardens. We rode the trains, marvelled at the old steam machines, were spun round on the carousel, wandered through the gardens, took time out to eat and, of course, shop. All in all a very enjoyable day made special as it was our first outing since Covid.

Pakenham WI Last month's lunch was held at Casa the Bury based Mediterranean restaurant. It was an excellent taste of the Mediterranean with lots of tempting courses. The most wonderful food, fabulous ambience and the very best of company

At the beginning of June we held a Platinum Jubilee Tea. It was an absolutely amazing afternoon, a huge thank you to the fabulous cooks, sandwich makers, waitresses and bottle washers.

Literally hundreds of wonderful people spent an enjoyable afternoon in the village hall celebrating the Queen's Jubilee enjoying the very best of Pakenham WI hospitality. Huge congratulations to our members, great job!

For our June meeting Norma Howell was our guest speaker for the evening, on behalf of Medical Detection Dogs. We heard of all the work and history of these clever canines not only detecting disease but assisting and supporting individuals with serious ailments.

Norma Howell

We are taking a well-earned break from cooking in July and looking forward to our annual outdoor meeting in The Pakenham Fox garden where Ross and the team are our hosts for a barbeque.

Finally, we are delighted to be supporting the village Flower and Produce Show at the end of July with our internationally famous cream teas.

Mary Kirby, WI President

Haverhill Owls WI After all the business and Annual Meeting was completed, members settled down to make a floral table decoration in a tea cup. Under the guidance of members Pat and Sue, we chose our flowers and foliage and set to work. After a few false starts, some laughter and groaning, and the odd cry of "I might need to start again", we managed to produce an array of decorations that we took home as a reminder of a lovely evening.

Val Simpson, WI Secretary

Horringer Court WI In June we welcomed Derek Wilding from Suffolk Accident Rescue Services (SARS) and he explained that all the volunteers offer a complementary service to the Ambulance service. It was founded 50 years ago and provides treatment for patients at pre-hospital emergencies.

We finished our evening with a jubilee celebration of tea and cakes.

Hartest WI Having lost our only expert flower arranger some years ago, regrettably all our current members are of the “stick them in a vase and hope for the best” school of flower arranging. So it was with some trepidation that we acceded to a request to provide a submission for a Flower Festival to be held in All Saints Church in Hartest over the Platinum Jubilee weekend. The brief was wide; entries could be as beautiful, creative, quirky or outrageous as entrants wished and there were group, individual and children’s categories. However, even the appeal of prizes to be won did not serve to alleviate our misgivings. What on earth were we to do if we were to avoid public humiliation, not to mention letting down the many WI members, county and nationwide, for whom flower arranging is a natural or acquired skill?

Plumping for a display rather than an ‘arrangement’ and using a number of small containers, rather than a single larger one seemed to be the answer. A flurry of activity produced cylinders of oasis and nine mugs from the silver jubilee and coronation featuring the Queen. With the aid of microwave trivets, a cupboard organiser (one with 3 ‘steps from the £1 shop), a large Union Jack and red, white and blue flowers from our President’s garden, we set about our task. The ‘site’ was a high window ledge above the church piano; a lovely mullioned window backdrop, but accessible only by standing on a stool and leaning across the width of the piano.

The flowers in their mugs were supplemented with Union Jack sandwich flags amongst the blooms, framed portraits and collages featuring the Queen, plus, on the piano, a Union Jack hat, Silver Jubilee biscuit tin and our President’s invitation to the Garden Party at Buckingham Palace in 2015.

It took four of us (Liz Depper, Secretary, Yvonne Hebditch and Val Seal, members and Lynne Webb, President) all morning to complete but we stood back experiencing not only relief, but also some pride in having produced a display that we felt was both colourful and in the Jubilee spirit. Each entry had to have a card saying whose work it was, which class it was entered for and give a name for the arrangement. Ours, naturally enough, reflected the Queen’s commitment to the WI, “Congratulations to Her Majesty, a WI member since 1943.”

Hartest’s masterpiece

Walking home across the village green afterwards, Liz and Yvonne spotted something unusual in the distance on top of the post box – it had been Jubilee yarn – bombed by a very clever craftsperson. We have been unable to discover who this talented person is, but many thanks to them nevertheless. Oh... and by the way, we won a prize for our ‘arrangement’.

A very royal post box

Liz Depper, WI Secretary

Rickinghall WI were busy over the Jubilee weekend, starting with several members helping with floral displays in St Mary's Church in Redgrave. We also took part in a Community Exhibition with a WI display prepared by two of our committee members, Lesley Farrer and Sara Schofield, which attracted a lot of interest. Several Rickinghall playing field setting up our tombola stall as part of the village fete. All the bottles had been donated by members and the stall raised £400 for charity.

At our June meeting we were pleased to welcome six new ladies for the evening. We were also pleased to have Mandy Wild from New Image 4U, who showed us how to look good in a bin bag! She used bin bags to demonstrate what shape we were and explained that dressing for your body shape, be it inverted triangle, triangle, round, lean column, rectangle, neat hourglass or full hourglass determined which style of clothes looked better on you. There was great interest and hilarity when seven ladies volunteered, and Mandy, by putting a bin bag on them with accessories such as scarves or a belt, could make them look quite different. All being a different body shape to what we thought, we went away with advice on what clothes we should wear.

Rosemary Setterfield, WI President

Barton Mills WI At our meeting we celebrated the Queen's Platinum Jubilee. We made an early start and decorated the hall with bunting and flags. We made a floral arrangement in red, white and blue flowers in a basket. Blue flowers were the most difficult to find but we all managed. To guide us we invited Linda and Diane former members and avid floral arrangers themselves. The hall was very quiet while we concentrated very hard to get our baskets to our liking.

Jubilee floral tributes

To make more of the evening we all wore red, white and blue, brought a selection of Royal memorabilia and ended our evening with a Royal spread - filo pastry cups filled with Coronation chicken, Queen Mary's cheese biscuits sandwiched together with smoked salmon and anchovies, a chocolate cream filled Victoria sponge and a cake decorated with a Union Flag in raspberries and blueberries. We ended with a raffle of everything red, white and blue, of course!

Marilyn Badger, WI Secretary

Risby WI joined in the village Platinum Jubilee

Super sellers Sylvia, Penny and Gill

festivities with a stall at Risby Fete selling plants, delicious cakes and savoury treats made by our members. The stall was a huge success and our stallholders were rushed off their feet, raising over £300 for our WI.
